PRESS RELEASE

18th March 2010

‘Spring Holiday Crafts and Skills Days’ At Amberley Museum & Heritage Centre

History in the making

On Wednesday 7th and Wednesday 14th April Amberley Museum & Heritage Centre will be holding traditional crafts and skills days to give accompanied children the opportunity to experience a variety of traditional craft techniques used at the Museum.

Sessions will run from 11.00am – 1.00pm & 2.00pm – 4.00pm and will enable participants to enjoy some fascinating ‘hands-on’ activities:

- wood turning
- pottery
- stained glass decorating
- candle rolling
- felt making
- most activities are suitable for 5-15 years

No need to book in advance, but register and book for some activities on the day.

The Museum will be open every Tuesday – Sunday, including Bank Holidays and Mondays during West Sussex school holidays, throughout the season. Situated within the South Downs National Park in 36 acres of chalk quarry the Museum boasts a range of live exhibits including a free historic bus service and narrow gauge railway, electricity hall, BT Connected Earth plus much more.
