PRESS RELEASE

28th April 2010

WHAT'S ON AT AMBERLEY MUSEUM

Veteran and Vintage Motorcycle Show – Sunday 9th May

Amberley Museum will be holding its esteemed annual Veteran and Vintage Motorcycle Show on Sunday 9th May. With over 200 entrants expected on a range of motorcycles of all shapes, sizes and designs, the event is not to be missed!

The event provides a unique opportunity to see an almost comprehensive history of motorcycle design within the delightful 36-acre grounds of Amberley, set in the heart of the South Downs National Park. With motorcycles from as early as 1912 expected, and ranging from 49cc up to 1200cc in size, variety will certainly not be a problem for visitors!

“The Veteran and Vintage Motorcycle Show has always been immensely popular”, said Paul Hashfield, Museum Director, “visitors are always pleased to see not only the machines on display, but still working and lovingly maintained by their owners”.

Normal admission prices apply and visitors will be able to see the Museum's other exhibits on site too, which include a working historic bus service, narrow-gauge railway, blacksmith's forge, stained glass maker, potter, print workshop, 'Connected Earth' telecommunications exhibition and much, much more!

Further details can be found on the Museum's website www.amberleymuseum.co.uk or through telephoning the Museum directly on (01798) 831370.
