Limeburners Restaurant

Looking for somewhere really special to hold your event to remember? Look no further than the Limeburners Restaurant, situated in the heart of the South Downs at Amberley Working Museum.

Our 96 seater state of the art restaurant makes the very best of its unique and established setting. Taking its inspiration from a Sussex Barn, the Limeburners Restaurant features a timber frame, cedar cladding and hand-made clay tiles. Its light, airy interior and delightful views across the Museum site make it an attractive and welcoming venue for any group.

Our trained and dedicated staff are here to ensure the success of your event. From a magnificent formal dinner for a Club event, to a Ploughman's Lunch for a small group, our staff can provide what you require. Their comprehensive range of menus, combined with a licensed bar, means that the sky really is the limit!

Being such a versatile building, the Limeburners Restaurant can offer so much more than just a fine setting for a meal. It is an ideal venue for conferences, presentations, product launches, talks and so much more...

We can help tailor the building to your requirements, sort out any technical or logistical problems you may have for your event, and ensure your day runs smoothly and professionally.

Above: Our restaurant is ideally suited for conferences, seminars and lectures.

Below: The restaurant also makes a fantastic venue for an event launch.

Above: Our trained staff are there to make your event special.

Above: The Limeburners Restaurant is highly flexible, allowing the building to be prepared to suit your requirements to perfection. Table sizes, numbers and layout can all be adapted, creating the ideal atmosphere. With the option of soft music playing and a number of lighting arrangements available (both inside and out), we are sure we can provide just what you need!

Why not make the best of Amberley Working Museum's facilities and develop a package to suit your particular requirements? For more details, call the Museum Office during office hours on 01798 831370, or e-mail office@amberleymuseum.co.uk
