PAYMENT

For small groups and non-travel/coach companies, payment is required on arrival. Please note this must be made as one payment (not separate payments by individual members of the group).

Travel and coach companies may be invoiced after the visit (with confirmation of visitor numbers required on entry).

We regret that we cannot accept American Express payments.

Please tick your preferred method.

- On arrival at the museum
- Payment by invoice

We understand that unforeseen circumstances may mean that the numbers in your group change from those stated on this form. Actual numbers should be confirmed to the Shop on your arrival so that you are charged correctly.

If your group number falls below 10 people, the group rate is no longer applicable and you may be asked to pay the standard visitor rates per person.

Amberley Museum will only use the information provided for the legitimate interest of a group visit to our museum. We will not share any data with third parties. This is covered by the museum's privacy policy, available on our website www.amberleymuseum.co.uk
